7. The Hall of Fame recognises those people that have made an outstanding contribution to the BMRWFC competition. If you wish to nominate somebody for entry into the BMRWFC Hall of Fame please do so now. Note that should any person be nominated twice then that will constitute a nomination. A separate vote will then be held to determine whether or not that person will actually be awarded Hall of Fame status. (Multiple responses allowed. Select as many or as few people as you think are worthy. If you don't wish to make a nomination select "Nobody".)

8. According to the BMRWFC constitution a member of the Hall of Fame can be ejected from that position. This ensures that the Hall of Fame is kept current and that a Hall of Famer does not discredit the BMRWFC. Currently Michael Cake is the only member of the prestigious BMRWFC Hall of Fame. A position he has held since 2003. Please cast your vote in relation to Cakey's place in the BMRWFC Hall of Fame

| | | Response Percent | Response Count |
|--|--|--------------------------|----------------|
| I would prefer that the fixtures remain stable each year. Additional rounds would be based around an interest angle, such as a Rivalry Round or Heritage Week. So I would play the same two or three teams twice every year. |  | 28.6% | 4 |
| I would prefer that the fixtures change each year. The fixtures would then work on a rotational system. You would not play the same team twice in consecutive seasons. You might, for example, play each team 6 times in 5 seasons. |  | 71.4% | 10 |
